THE GREAT EARTHQUAKE.

Further Details of the Awful Disaster in Italy.

The Scene at the Theater in Casamicciola when the Shock Came—The Number of Killed Estimated at Three Thousand.

NAPLES, July 31.—The search of the ruins for the bodies of the victims of the earthquake at Ischia was continued during the night. All bodies recovered were buried immediately to prevent miasma. An eye-witness describes the scene at the theater at Casamicciola when the earthquake occurred as an awful one. The curtain had just risen, when a tremendous shock was felt, a fearful roar heard, and the ground rocked like a ship in a storm. The greatest cry of terror rose from the audience, who were thrown into a heap and a great number buried beneath the timbers of the building which fell on them. Then two more shocks occurred. All who could rushed out of the theatre and a hundred climbed into trees in their wild search for safety. Most of the people, however, escaped to the shore, where bonfires were lighted as signals of distress. A hundred half-naked men and women, wild with terror and grief, ran to and fro among the ruins with torches, during the night, searching for missing friends.

Among the persons who were on the Island of Ischia on Saturday night and who have been missing since the earthquake occurred, was a Mr. Sommer, an English or American gentleman. He resided at the Hotel Manzie.

Darkness, Death and Destruction.

LONDON, July 31.—Of the foreigners staying at Casamicciola only those were saved who were at the theatre Saturday night. The survivors state that they were obliged to pass Saturday night in absolute darkness, without daring to move even to assist those calling for help beneath the ruins. Now there are few hopes that the latter are still alive. According to the latest estimate, three thousand persons perished on the island. Three soldiers searching for victims were fatally injured to-day. Subscription lists have been opened throughout Italy for the relief of the distressed.

The Only American Injured.

NAPLES, July 31.—The only American known to have been injured by the earthquake on the Island of Ischia, on Saturday, was a Miss Vandelen. She was only slightly hurt.

CAREY, THE DEAD INFORMER.

The Manner of His Departure and Death.

LONDON, July 31.—O'Donnell, who shot Carey, was accompanied by his wife, who appeared to be on intimate terms with Carey criminally, during the voyage. The Times pronounces the death of Carey a public misfortune and says he has been the instrument of justice. The murder is calculated to encourage daring and lawlessness. The joy caused in Ireland by the informer's death is proof that many elements of danger still exist there.

Third class berths on the steamer Kinfauls were secured on June 30th at the Dublin office of Donald, Currie & Co., for Port Elizabeth, for a Mr. Power and his wife and seven children, which, it is well known, was the exact number of James Carey's family. On July 2d, O'Donnell secured passage for himself and wife on the same steamer. Donald, Currie & Co. were not aware until yesterday of the identity of Power. Carey died without speaking after he was shot. O'Donnell is an Irish-American. He denies that he knew who Carey was previous to his arrival at Cape Town. It is reported that an infernal machine was found in O'Donnell's possession.

Delight in Dublin Over the News of Carey's Death.

DUBLIN, July 31.—The news of James Carey's death caused many exhibitions of delight on the streets here.

THE CHOLERA.

Better Reports From the Infected Districts.

LONDON, July 31.—Special dispatches state that there were eighty-eight deaths at Alexandria from cholera yesterday. A surgeon in the British forces has died at Cairo. Telegraphs to the war office state that the general health of the troops is good; that the cholera was less violent at Cairo and that the cases under treatment were more hopeful.

The Death Roll at Cairo and Other Points.

LONDON, July 31.—There were 330 deaths from cholera at Cairo on Sunday and 443 at twenty other places between Seifith and Menodfieh. The government is considering a project to burn other dangerous quarters of the city like Butaka.

ALEXANDRIA, July 31.—Two deaths from cholera occurred here yesterday. The number of deaths from the disease which occurred at Cairo yesterday is 275.

GENERAL DISPATCHES.

Pennsylvania Coal Mines Flooded—A Miners' Strike.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 31.—No. 10 Colliery of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company has been flooded by rains to a depth of seventeen feet. Four hundred miners are thrown out of employment.

The miners of the Hanover Coal Company have struck. They demanded the discharge of the acting boss.

Jail Delivery and Recapture.

NILES, Mich., July 91.—Nine of fourteen prisoners in the county jail at Burien Springs on Sunday tunneled under the cellars and escaped. Two have been captured and a large posse is searching for the others.

Drowned.

VICKSBURG, Miss., July 31.—A dispatch from Mayesville says that during a severe storm on Sunday evening several skiffs on the river, containing ten colored men, capsized and five men were drowned,

A Connecticut Bolt.

NORWALK, Conn., July 31.—Lightning did considerable damage to barns and dwellings in this vicinity on Sunday night.

Outlook for Ventura.

Pacific Rural Press.]

A good authority says of Ventura: The quality of grain this season is good, and the yield, per acre, larger than usual. Ventura will this season export more grain in proportion to her population than any county in the State. And if prices of grain are only fair, our farmers will this season receive a good return for their toil and capital. At the present writing, corn and beans look exceptionally well, but it is yet too soon to determine what the bean and corn crop will be, when it is ready to harvest. The only crop failure in Ventura (and I believe it is the same throughout Southern California) this season is the almost entire failure of the honey crop.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 18, 1882.
For Mrs. Victor Beaudry, Los Angeles:
I have carefully analyzed the sample of water marked as under—and find the following to be the proportions in every 100 parts:

NOBODY CAN DENY.
Consumers can depend upon the NEW ENGLAND BAKING POWDER as being exactly as represented. It is Cream of Tartar and Bicarbonate of Soda of perfect purity, scientifically combined; NOTHING ELSE.
The price of the NEW ENGLAND BAKING POWDER justifies the use of the very best materials. Consumers pay a fair price for the best and get it.
It is self-evident that Baking Powders represented to be composed of the same materials as the NEW ENGLAND, and which are sold to dealers at less than the pure materials themselves are worth, cannot be pure.
The large demand for NEW ENGLAND BAKING POWDER, and consequent failing off in sales of adulterated and inferior powders, has developed a spitefulness on the part of some manufacturers and dealers. Finding that the quality of the NEW ENGLAND cannot be successfully attacked, new brands and close imitations, represented to be as good, are put on the market. With these they endeavor to tempt dealers with low prices, and thus impose on consumers.

The Daily Times.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1883.

Now what in the name of the Old Harry and Thomas Walker does the agent of the Western Asiociated Press at San Francisco mean by sending the much-abused truly rural papers of the interior the kind of stuff with which he occasionally burdens the wires? Is he bent on provoking a strike among the remaining telegraphic operators, and, what would be worse still, an insurrection among the able editors of the interior papers? It was only a short time ago that we had thrust into our unwilling hands a long brief, so to speak, of some inconsequential play occupying the planks of the California or some other San Francisco theater. There wasn't a speck of news in it, and we ought to have apologized to the readers of the TIMES for printing it. (They will be good enough to consider the apology made, even at this late day.) Now comes another "dispatch" of the same sort, which we had carefully inserted into the waste-basket with a great big, big D, but which we rescue from that receptacle of rot just to show our readers what thrilling "news" these press people above send out when the Thespian spirit moves them. Here is the precious item:

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—Augustine Daly's Company played first night of a w piner's play, "The squire," at california theatre tonight. The Squire is late variety who left orphan assumes management estate from which facts obtains title squire scene being laid in England she is wooed and secretly married to Lt. Thorndike officer in army. Gilbert Hythe handy man estate is in love with "squire" former wife of Thorndyke believed dead until now appears in town and "Squire" is informed of fact subsequently Thorndyke while in her room at midnight by appointed detected by Hythe whose suspicions caused him to watch he is about to shoot Thorndyke when squire Cries out "He is father my child" Explanation then made hythe who becomes fast friend unfortunate pair sudden death first wife Thorndyke finally ends play happily and marriage thorndyke and squire again solemnized

Now will the enterprising newsgatherer who corraled the above please erect himself on end and point out where the "news" in it is, or tell us why "a w piner's" play and the California Theater should be advertised at our expense, and the expense of our patrons? We want an explanation—or blood.

IF high officials, civil and military, will go off junketing at public expense, there is probably no way of stopping it. They seem to have the power in their own hands, as things go, and it appears to be only a question of propriety with them whether they shall use it or not. One thing they might do, however, in deference to the intelligence of the public, if they have no regard for the obligations of their position. If they will go pleasuring, let them do it openly and above-board, as the old buccaneers used to sail out of port with their flags flying, and not sneak off under the thin pretence of "inspections," explorations and such like weak inventions. All the world despises a coward; and presuming on the verdancy of an American irritates him more than getting away with his money.

MANY of the left-handed compliments paid Tilden are like the following from the Philadelphia Times, an independent journal, of decidedly Democratic leanings:

1. Mr. Tilden will gladly accept the nomination for the Presidency—if he can get it.

2. He will write one of the best of political epistles, to be read in convention, declining the nomination—if he can't get it.

3. He will continue to maintain his present proclaimed indifference about the Presidential nomination, and prove that he doesn't care a button about it by—doing his level best to bunch a Tilden majority in convention.

THE Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette strikes it about right in the following: "The impression that the telegraphic strike causes great losses to the people at large is exaggerated. The strike is simply a debate between capital in the highest form of activity, and labor of the keenest intelligence. There is no reason for the excitement of outsiders. The discussion is animated and interesting, and we may depend upon it that the result will be instructive."

MACHINE politics will some day become so notoriously and intolerably corrupt that a general crusade will break out among the people, and the air all over the country will be filled with fragments of mashed machines and machinists. The time will come when a decent man, desiring to vote, may demand to know what he is voting for.

CAPTAIN FORAKER, Republican candidate for Governor of Ohio, pleads guilty to the charge that he is but 37 years of age, but supplements his plea by the statement that he was old enough in 1862 to carry a musket, which is an extenuating circumstance.

THE Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette is gathering statistics as to the workings of the Scott license law in Ohio State, and showing the number of saloons that under the law pay $200, and the number that pay $100, and the number that have gone out of business since the law took effect. The tables are not yet complete, but the following are the returns from 19 of the 88 counties in the State:

County.	Whole No.	$200.	$100.	Gone out.
Allen	88	66	14	10
Athens	40	39	1	15
Brown	56	51	5	18
Champaign	40	39	2	6
Columbiana	107	89	18	25
Geauga	8	5	3	3
Green	50	44	6	10
Harrison	5	5	..	10
Jefferson	100	77	23	55
Lawrence	72	60	12	50
Logan	27	26	1	16
Miami	79	59	20	15
Montgomery	385	313	72	128
Muskingum	107	80	27	18
Perry	84	68	16	50
Summit	64	44	20	24
Warren	44	38	6	8
Washington	52	46	6	35
Wood	64	49	15	12
				508

These returns being from less than one-fourth of the State show that already the number of saloons has been reduced over five hundred.

THE Bismarck, D. T., Tribune took advantage of the opportunity offered by the telegraph strike to exhibit the robustness of its imagination. It printed two columns of special telegrams of the most sensational character. One gave the details of the elopement of Mrs Langtry with Samuel J. Tilden; another reported that David Davis had been abducted by the proprietors of an oleomargarine factory; a third, that Queen Victoria is on her way to locate a tree claim in Dakota; another, that a can of baked beans had exploded under the chair of Governor Butler with frightful effect, and that the president of Harvard College was suspected to be the perpetrator of the outrage. Another telegram published is as follows:

CHICAGO, July 19.—By the breaking of a rope attached to the elevator on which he was ascending to the third floor of the city hall this morning Mayor Carter Harrison was precipitated to the cellar, a distance of thirty-two feet, and instantly sobered. By the breaking of the rope the city will suffer a loss of fully sixty cents.

SAYS the New York Tribune: "The Republican party must go." The demand was made in 1860. But the party didn't go. The demand was repeated in 1864. But the party remained. The demand was encored in 1868. But the party staid. The demand was again encored in 1872. But still the party was there. The demand, with a colossal appetite annex, was yet again pressed in 1876. But the party retained its place. The demand, gaining voice, if not strength, from a famished stomach, was the vociferation that fatigued the echoes of 1880. But the party continued to do business at the same old stand. The demand is to be made again next year. The party will continue not to go, by a large majority. But, as usual, something will go. As usual, it will be the Democratic party.

THE present strike of the operators is likely to have one effect that the telegraph company has not calculated upon. The interruption to correspondence by wire has demonstrated to business men the celerity and certainty of the mails, and how easy it is to do without the telegraph in many cases where it has been used. It frequently happens that business men, through sheer neglect, are compelled to make use of the telegraph, when a little foresight would have enabled them to transact their business through the mails. They procrastinate and then have to rush around with their nether garments off in order to grab Old Time by the fetlock. That lesson once learned is likely to be remembered and profited by in future.

THIS is rather severe from one high Democratic authority against another. The Louisville Courier-Journal says:

The New York Sun insists that Jay Gould would not subscribe to the Republican campaign fund in 1880 until assured that Garfield would appoint Stanley Matthews to the Supreme Bench. This is a very strained point. There was no vacancy on the Supreme Bench at the time. When a vacancy arose Hayes sent in Matthews' name to the Senate. It was afterwards sent in by Garfield and confirmed by Democratic votes. The Stalwarts, whom the Sun assails, were all against Matthews.

As the Evening Post says, every crooked little lane has a Democrat at the end of it.

A company has been formed in Chicago to transport passengers and freight through the air. It is known as the Aerial Navigation Company, and it starts out with a capital stock of $2,000,000. A machine is said to have been perfected which will carry a train of cars through the air as swiftly as though they were on a well-ballasted road-bed. The public faith in navigation of the air is about as weak as in the success of the Keely motor, but any actual trial of aerial machinery will be watched with much interest. If the experiment proves a success we need not have any fear of monopoly in transportation. — [San Francisco Chronicle.

Is McGlashan "into" this glittering scheme?

IT has been estimated by the Post-office Department that the amount which certain star-route contractors obtained in excess of what was legitimately due them for services rendered aggregates over $1,000,000. Suits for the recovery of this money are to be instituted, and if the law regulating contractors' bonds was properly observed in these cases, the government will get its money back—perhaps.

THE Washington Star remarks that two suggestive inquiries protrude themselves in connection with the late watering-place junketings of Mrs. Langtry and her young man Gebhardt. The first is: Will she, after that sort of thing, undertake to play star theatrical engagements in this country next fall? Second: If she does, will American ladies and gentlemen constitute her audiences?

"SECOND-hand glory" is good, and there is good reason for a Grand Army journal to apply it to the officers of the order called Sons of Veterans, who are masquerading as colonels and generals on the strength of the fighting their fathers did. The honors and titles of soldiers cannot pass to their heirs. They are buried with the men who won them.

RECENTLY the Santa Barbara Press commenced a new volume. The Press is keeping up its lick very well. The amount of good done by the old standby of Santa Barbara in the dozen years of its existence is not easy to estimate.

MEN AND WOMEN.

Josh Billings has selected a rough gravestone from the quarry near his native village.

Tom Thumb's body has been inclosed in solid masonry, to prevent its theft by grave-robbers.

Field Marshal von Moltke was taken for a tramp recently and ordered out of one of the German inland villages.

All four of President Arthur's sisters are Baptists, and the President himself likes the water for trout streams.

The President will be accompanied to the Yellowstone Park by Senators Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, and Vest, of Missouri.

C. F. Lusk, of Chico, who went East to negotiate the sale of the immense cattle ranch in Oregon belonging to the late Dr. Glenn, of Colusa, has returned to California.

Josiah Hinman, founder of Montana, the first town built in Colorado, died recently at his home in Vergennes, Vermont. He was the leader of the first party that left Lawrence, Kansas, for Pike's Peak, in May, 1858.

Mary Anderson has rejected the play which was written for her by Oscar Wilde. The heroine in the play, says the New York World, is made to go mad by eating the seeds of a sunflower, which she worshipped, causing her to fall in love with a long-haired poet in knee-breeches, whom she eventually kills with a rolling pin, being interrupted by him with a poem while engaged in the artistic work of preparing biscuit for breakfast. Miss Anderson found the play unsuited to her highly emotional nature.

Some Revelations of the Census.

From the National Republican.]

According to the census mortuary returns now in the hands of the printer, more people die in New England of extreme old age than in any other part of the country. The death list contains the names of hundreds of men and women every year who attain the advanced age of 85 and 90 years, and it is not unusual for persons to live to and beyond 100 years in that land of good morals, pure air and steady habits. There are more deaths from malarial diseases in mountain regions than along the river and gulf lines, strange as it may seem. The lowest rate of mortality for a considerable stretch of country, where there are people enough to make the data of value, is in Minnesota, the rate being only eight to the 1000 inhabitants.

Philadelphia Wives.

From the Philadelphia Record.]

Heedless persons envy the lot of the stay-at-home husband. On Third street a few hours each morning, and then away to the seashore for a late champagne dinner, a moonlight sail and flirtation alone. Nevertheless, the stay-at-home husband is not happy. He does not know what his wife is doing in the mountains; perhaps if he did know he would not be pleased.

The Boys of '61.

From the Ohio State Journal.]

The "boys" of '61 are the sedate, middle-aged men of '83 who crowd our streets in these reunion days; but they have lost none of the patriotic fervor which they had twenty odd years ago. Such reunions bring the stirring scenes of the war vividly to mind, and the quickened memories invoke the thrilling incidents which made that struggle so memorable.

Buying the Presidency.

From the Kansas City Journal.]

The Philadelphia Times interprets the Tildenic idea to mean that somebody should buy the Presidency and make Mr. Tilden a present of it. This is hardly fair. Mr. Tilden asks nobody to buy the Presidency. He proposes to buy it himself.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[This is the TIMES-MIRROR'S Public Forum upon which all who have anything pertinent timely and interesting to say, on topics of current interest, may stand and give their independent opinions to the people; the writers being responsible for their own sentiments and statements. Correspondents are politely urged to be clear, concise, and to the point; to write plainly, and upon one side of the sheet only.]

Zach Montgomery and His Anti Public School Heresies.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: Mr. Zach Montgomery, with his "Poison Fountain," has figured considerably in the literature of the Pacific coast during the last few years. He has found from the census report that in the six New England States there is a greater proportion of crime, suicide and pauperism than in six of the Southern States. He also finds that in the New England States, while one in 312 can neither read nor write, in the six Southern States there is one in every twelve who can neither read nor write. He tells us that in Massachusetts the "whole people must be 'educated to a certain degree at the public expense, irrespective of any social distinctions,'" and that in Virginia an "appropriation" was made "for the instruction of the poor."

Inasmuch as in the New England States the whole community were to be educated at public expense, Mr. Montgomery styles this the "anti-parental system." In the Southern States the paupers were educated at public expense, while all the other children were left to shift for themselves, or attend private schools. Mr. Montgomery's statistics show that for the greater part they did the former—hence the "parental" system, with its one to twelve illiterates.

But because in the New England States the paupers, suicides and criminals are respectively 2, 2½ and 6¼ times as great as in the Southern States, Mr. Montgomery at once declares that this is because of the "anti-parental" education. In other words, the teachers of the schools in the New England States are grinding out criminals, paupers and suicides six times as fast as the parents in the Southern States are doing the same kind of work.

Now, Mr. Montgomery, what evidence have you that this great percentage of crime is due to the "anti-parental" system of education? That your statistics are true, no one doubts. Can you show that the paupers of the New England States are all virtuous, moral and happy, and that the educated citizens have a decided tendency to crime? In the New England States there is a much larger percentage of lawyers in proportion to the population than in the six Southern States. Now, why not attribute all these social evils to the pestiferous presence of attorneys-at-law? The people of the New England States consume, it is probable, about ten pounds avoirdupois of salt codfish to every pound consumed in the six Southern States. Why not attribute the prevalance of crime to the intemperate consumption of codfish?

As a matter of fact, Mr. Montgomery, you cannot prove the prevalence of crime in the New England States to have any connection whatever with the "anti-parental" schools. Now I find, on consulting the same source from which you draw your information, that in Indiana where the educational system is certainly "anti-parental," the criminals are in proportion of 1 to 9552, while in Louisiana, a "parental" State, the criminals are 1 to 816. In the same manner compare Iowa, Kansas, Ohio and Missouri, with Florida, Tennessee, Louisiana and Alabama and we have the following result:

Proportion of criminals.		Proportion of criminals.
Iowa	1 to 9,325	Florida	1 to 4,259
Kansas	1 to 4,296	Tennessee	1 to 1,877
Ohio	1 to 7,589	Louisiana	1 to 816
Missouri	1 to 5,461	Alabama	1 to 2,823

Hence I claim, on the same grounds, that the "parental" system is directly responsible for this array of crime.

But let us look a little beyond our own limits and take the case of France. Here the system of education has, until recently, been sufficiently 'parental' to satisfy the wildest longings of your heart.

	Suicides per million pers.	Paupers.	Criminals.
Six N. E. States	75	1 to 216	1 to 1,352
France	105	1 to 12	1 to 460

Now, if Mr. Montgomery had attributed all of these evils to the massing of population he would have been not far from right. As a matter of fact crime and puperism increase—and that, out of proportion—with the crowding of population. If Mr. Montgomery will go with me through the Mulberry street tenement houses that I have visited this summer in New York City—where more than 1000 men, women and children are packed together at the rate of from five to ten in a room; where poverty, filth and squalor hold communion; where every semblance of family relation is violated; where debauchery reigns supreme—I will show him where paupers and criminals are made. If he will visit the factories, the shops and sewing-rooms, where girls and women earn $2 per week, and spend $4 per week for the very necessities of life, I will show him why prostitution and bastardy are greater in New York than in Virginia.

Furthermore, Mr. Montgomery, if you will go with me through the schoolrooms of San Francisco, Oakland or Los Angeles, I will show you children by the hundreds and thousands whose only knowledge of morality, decency and integrity has been acquired within the walls of the "anti-parental" schoolrooms.

Whatever may be the faults of the "anti-parental" schools—and they are many—certain it is that they are dear to the hearts of the people. The State, Mr. Montgomery, should certainly have the power and the privilege to make its children and its wards into citizens who shall be able in after life to govern it and guide its affairs. Hence the establishment of the "anti-parental" schools, which fit poor and rich alike for the duties of citizenship. And, Mr. Montgomery, should you ever lift your finger in violence against them 900,000 people of the State of California will rise up and sit down on you as never man was sat down on before.

J. W. REDWAY.

The Christian Sabbath.

To the Editor of the TIMES—SIR: Rev. Dr. Cobb, pastor of Asbury M. E. Church, East Los Angeles, preached a very suggestive sermon yesterday on the subject of the Sabbath. He stated that the institution was of divine origin, and was designed, not only for the Jews, but for all nations for all time to come. It is based on a physical necessity, both for man and beast. It is recognized by all civilized nations, and their prosperity is in the ratio of its observance. He who violates the Sabbath not only breaks the law of God, recognized by the Savior and Apostles, but breaks the laws of man, and infringes the rights of those who conscientiously wish to observe it without molestation.

California, in blotting from her statute books laws to protect this institution and the rights of those believing in its sacredness, has placed herself in an unenviable light before the civilized nations of the world, and done herself, as she will sooner or later find out, an immeasurable wrong. People attracted by her matchless climate and almost untold advantages, are immigrating in vast numbers, and a large majority of these are believers in the observance of the Sabbath as a day of sacred rest. He expressed the belief that the tide of public sentiment would soon turn, and that it was the duty of every Christian to help bring this to pass, and every loyal citizen as well. Throwing the responsibility of having no Sunday law upon the Legislature, as he did, was, however, an injustice to that body, unless the writer has been wrongly informed. He has been more than once told that a Sunday law passed both houses, and was vetoed by the Governor. Please give the facts in the case, Mr. Editor, not only for the benefit of your readers, but that everybody may know where the responsibility belongs.

In speaking of the press as being generally either silent on the subject or outspoken against Sabbath observance, he paid a high compliment to the TIMES, but deeply regretted that it published, without rebuke, an account of a Sunday shooting match. Your correspondent agreed with him that the TIMES, for a daily secular paper, is in morals high-toned, for which we give thanks, but also with him deprecated the absence of anything, so far as we have noticed, condemning Sabbath breaking. We do not know but it is considered by publishers in California a positive necessity to be conservative on that subject, if not wholly mum, in order to succeed. If so you will likely throw this in the waste basket.

A NEW-COMER.

[REMARKS.—(1.) The pastor was right and the correspondent is wrong about the blotting out of the Sunday law. That law was upon the statute-book for many years previous to the advent of the present Democratic Legislature, which repealed it, and Governor Stoneman approved the repealing act. (2.) The TIMES steadily supported the late Sunday law of California and strenuously opposed its repeal. (3.) The TIMES does not recognize the necessity of being either "mum" or conservative on this subject, "in order to succeed."—ED. TIMES.]

Pomona Pickings.

Times, July 28.]

Barley and wheat of the new crop is being delivered in Los Angeles in large quantities.

There is no place in the country where there is as great demand for mechanics and laborers as Pomona.

Pomona now has two brick yards running at full capacity, but they are unable to supply the demand. Brick business houses are all the rage in Pomona now.

During the first of the present week a fire broke out in the mountains north of town and has since been burning, destroying thousands of cords of wood and much valuable standing timber. At times the sight was grand to look upon as the flames climbed the mountain side in their wild course of destruction.

We learn that threshing in the vicinity of Spadra is now well under way and the yield of grain is very satisfactory to farmers. Spadra is improving and is a pleasant place.

We have at last, through the untiring efforts of our efficient Deputy Sheriff, Mr. R. F. House, assisted by our citizens generally, secured a safe, substantial and commodious lock-up. The building is completed, ready for tenants, and be assured that Mr. House will not be backward in coming forward to introducing wrong-doers to its hospitalities.

This Saturday morning, July 28, 1883, finds Pomona the liveliest, go-ahead town in Southern California, and brimfull and running over with strangers, all on the lookout for land by the acre or lot. Advance is the order, and prosperity marks every step taken.

The town of Woodland now uses 550,000 gallons of water per day.

WE BRING GLAD TIDINGS

HEALTH! HEALTH! HEALTH! HEALTH! HEALTH! HEALTH!

HEALTH restored and life prolonged to suffering humanity, by the most wonderful curative agents ever discovered. I invite the sick, no matter what their diseases may be, to call and investigate for themselves before abandoning all hope, for it will cost you nothing. I give no encouragement unless there is a fair prospect of making a cure. I will endeavor to be candid in my opinion, and reasonable in my charges. I claim not to cure everybody, but to cure all that can be cured. I am formerly from New York city, and a graduate of one of the best medical colleges in the United States, and a most thorough Electrician, and have had many years successful practice in the treatment of both acute and chronic diseases. To remove all doubts and convince my patients that I claim nothing but what I am, I refer to my diplomas and the numerous recommendations in my possession, which will always be ready for inspection at my office. I HAVE NO CURE-ALL, and it is a hobby of any one claiming to be a physician that he must use electricity or medicines or both, as cases may require. I find the cause of disease, remove it, and nature, assisted by medicinal remedies properly applied, will promote a cure without fail. TO THE LADIES. To the ladies I would say: You, whose sufferings have become intolerable, and who have suffered a thousand deaths from those diseases so common to your sex, give me a call, for I CAN CURE YOU WITHOUT FAIL, and make your lives once again worth living for. And all consultations will be strictly private and confidential. YOUNG MEN. To those young men who are suffering from year to year, and whose vital powers have become impaired, and nervous system unstrung and broken down, and are suffering all the horrors from the effects of youthful follies; COME AND SEE ME. I have a sure preventative of premature decay and early death. To those who from indiscretions have contracted private diseases and are desirous of being cured, come without fail, for I can guarantee you a speedy cure. I treat with success all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, Liver, Head, Nerves Kidneys, Bladder, Womb, Blood, Affections of the Urinary Organs, Gravel, Piles, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Eye and Ear, etc., etc. Consultation free at my office.

Why We Advertise.

FIRST—Because we want to let the people know that we have always been selling all goods at twenty-five per cent. less than any other house in the city.

SECOND—Because we warrant all goods as represented, and never resort to deception in order to make a sale.

THIRD—Because we have determined to make a still larger reduction in all

Spring and Summer Millinery Goods,

As we are determined to close them out before the middle of July.

FOURTH—Because we are determined to do a big business, even during the "dull" season, and have adopted the motto of "quick, cash sales and small profits."

FIFTH—Because we have the largest lot of sea-shell and other shade hats in the city, and the people must have them cheap before they go to the seashore.

SIXTH—Because we must make room for the earliest and most fashionable stock of millinery for the FALL TRADE ever brought to this city.

EVENTH—Because we carry the leading stock, of all sizes and colors, of warranted

ALL-SILK RIBBONS.

EIGHTH—Because we want the people to know that we do not keep cotton or mixed goods to palm off on unsuspecting customers as first class.

NINTH—Because we can offer, at prices that are below all competition, the best-assorted line of ladies', children's and infants'

FURNISHING GOODS

To be found in the city.

TENTH—Because we want all the ladies to call and see us and examine our goods and prices and compare with other houses in the same line of business.

Mistaken Idea.

The idea is advanced that the Grand Centra Hotel excels all others in Los Angeles, should not be, because, where others charge 15 to $25 for board and room per week, we ask 7 to $10. Again, how could we excel others when we give board alone for $4 per week, when they charge $7? But here are facts which it behooves gentlemen and ladies to read: The Grand Central Hotel was built for the model hotel of Los Angeles. There is gas and water in each room; walnut furniture, spring beds and all modern conveniences. Our prices do not pay, but for sixty days meals will be 25 cents; board will be $4 per week; meal tickets will be sold at $4 50 for twenty-one. Rooms will be from 50 cents to $1 per night, and $3 to $6 per week. We invite custom, but it must be understood that only sober and respectable patrons will be entertained.

Musical Impostors.

In conversation yesterday with one of the leading musical men of the city, a TIMES reporter was informed that at the present time the city is overrun by a host of incompetent music teachers. Men and women who have come here seeking health or climate, possessing, perhaps, a fair musical education, as soon as they arrive branch and bloom out as "professors." Their teaching is merely a process of learning to play one or two selections in an acceptable manner. Without beginning with the fundamental rudiments of music, they at once teach to the pupils some nursery ballad and drill them on this sort of exercise for a time, praising them, and by flattery making the parents believe that their children are on the highway to success in music. There is only one remedy for this evil. At once demand of these so-called "professors" their credentials, and if not produced, and at once, deny them the right of admittance to the home. Cut them out and let them go. Their work is destructive. They inculcate false principles in the minds of the youth, which years of hard study in a good school cannot fully eradicate.

Not to be Limited.

The constant sound of the falling hammer, the erection of elegant brick blocks where a few years since could be seen only low adobes, is a most convincing argument that at no previous day has the prosperity of Los Angeles been so great as now. One fact in this connection is frequently mentioned; that is, the fact that such rookeries as those of Sonoratown are doomed. The population of such districts cannot withstand the light and the aggressive progress of this age of American go-aheaditiveness. One by one these dens of corruption are being torn down and their places taken by more solid and enduring buildings. Many of the residents of this city can remember that within a remarkably short time it was unsafe for an American to be found alone at night on the streets unarmed. Now anyone can go the entire length of the city in perfect security both to person and life at any hour of the night.

Woodman, Spare That Tree!

A few days ago, in the absence of the owner of her house, his mother-in-law concluded she would beautify the grounds by cutting down twenty-two eucalyptus trees which offended her taste, so she made a bargain with a young man to cut them down and take the wood, he to pay $15 for it, at once depositing $5 as security. He went bravely to work and had cut down two of them when the son-in-law of the lady appeared. He immediately objected to that exhibition of mother-in-law taste, and told the man to stop. The man said a contract was a contract and he demanded all the trees, but the owner of the trees protested that it would damage his property at least $2000. The man with the axe said that was none of his business, but that he wanted to get those twenty-two trees down as soon as possible. After much loud talk it was compromised by the owner of the property paying the wood speculator $30 and giving him the two trees already cut down. We draw the curtain on the scene that ensued between the son-in-law and mother-in-law.

Flourishing Mining District.

San Diego Union.]

"At Pinacarte the mines are all doing well, the poorest quartz and quartzite run from $30 to $40 per ton in gold. Three mills are crushing the quartz, one of them being a custom mill, which is of the greatest advantage to prospectors who own rich claims without the capital necessary to erect a mill. The California Southern Railroad trains run within half a mile of the mines and mills. From all reliable information that can be gathered, Pinacarte is destined to become one of the richest mining districts in Southern California.

Total Wreck Mine Shut Down.

Tucson Citizen, July 30.]

The Total Wreck mill and mine has been shut down, by order of the New York stockholders. We are at a loss to assign a reason for the suspension of work in this mine, as the Superintendent, N. R. Vail, informs us that there is an abundance of ore in reach to keep the mill going, and that regular weekly shipments of bullion, to the value of $18,000 to $25,000, were made up to the time of receiving orders to shut down. If Mr. Vail has stated the facts, the action of the company is strange, to say the least.

Chief Cuddy's Star.

The members of the city police presented the efficient head of the department, Chief Cuddy, with a handsome star yesterday, as a token of their esteem for him. The gift is the handiwork of the well-known jewelry firm of Platt, Page & Berman, and cost $200. The points of the star are handsomely enameled in blue and red, the inscription being in black enamel. A diamond graces the center of the star, and the whole is a gift of which the Chief may well be proud.

Fire at Sierra Madre.

A fire the other day on the Sierra Madre tract destroyed about ten cords of wood, the property of Mr. N. C. Carter; also a hut belonging to some of his Italian laborers, containing clothing and provisions.

CATALINA IN FLAMES.

A Wretched Sunday for Thousands of People.

The Beautiful Island City Lying in Ashes—Immense Losses, but well Insured—Factories, Churches, Courthouse and Many Residences Burned.

On Sunday afternoon, on the arrival of the Wilmington train, the painful particulars of a terrible fire at Catalina Island were first learned. According to General Roley, who was first on the scene, it commenced in the Chinese fish-oil manufactory of Ah Lie, who was smoking opium, and carelessly knocked over his lamp, the flames being immediately conveyed to a lot of open barrels containing refined oil. Ah Lie was burned to death while lying in a state of insensibility from opium, and the tanks and woodwork were soon in flames. Duffy's bathing houses went up like balloons, as they were built in a very fragile way. Duffy himself was badly burned while rescuing a lady, who was in the dressing-room preparing for a bath, but it is believed he will be about again in several months. A ball was in progress at the time, and Manager Wm. Banning hurried all the participants on board the steamer Amelia, which was then at anchor a few feet from town. Thomas A. Templeton, who has been packing rock-cod on a large scale, had to leave his drying and salting sheds to the devouring flames and seek safety in flight. John Kennedy had the melancholy pleasure of seeing a stream of oil go through his establishment, the flames thirty feet high, and devouring it almost in an instant, he only saving a few books and papers. Next to Mr. Kennedy's place were the Catholic church and Kindergarten, both of which were soon wrapped in flames. The abalone factory soon met the same fate, while the adjoining art gallery, with its beautiful collection of gems in the way of paintings and sculpture, melted like snow. The Presbyterian and Mormon churches, though built so solidly, will require rebuilding, and Bishop Jones of the latter church was terribly burned in trying to save some valuable plates relating to the meeting of the prophet Smith and Sampson, the strong man of Israel. The beautiful boat-house is a ruin, though Mr. Joseph B. Banning saved one or two of the finest yachts, receiving some slight burns in so doing. The market-houses were all burned, but strange to say, not a saloon in town was injured, and soon they were administering spiritual comfort to the terrified and homeless people. The courthouse is badly damaged and many private residences. The damage might have been much greater, but most of the population had gone to San Clemente on account of the extreme heat, to spend the summer. This is the painful news brought by Gen. Roley. Herman Wangeman and other reliable citizens, which, we hope, will be modified by additional news as soon as the cable line is in working order. Thus without a warning is Catalina reduced to ashes, but there is a large insurance. We could not learn the particulars, as all our principal agents started in a special car for Wilmington to learn more. Admiral Banning has given shelter to all who are homeless in his spacious warehouses, and provisions are placed at their disposal. To-morrow we hope to publish that the story has been exaggerated.

The Autograph Entertainment.

The unique entertainment presented last night at the Fort Street M. E. Church by the Band of Hope was a crowning success, and was attended by over six hundred interested citizens. As announced, the entertainment was termed an "autograph entertainment," the proceeds of which were to go to the extension fund of the Orphans' Home at Vallejo. Much labor had been bestowed on the work of preparation, both in the programme and arrangement of the stage. The latter was most gracefully ornamented with a large fountain in the centre, plants, flowering shrubs and bouquets of cut flowers. In the rear of the platform, which extended across the full width of the church, there was a standard having a cross in the form of a gas jet, which burned brightly before the words, "Band of Hope," in gold letters. On the stage were two hundred and twenty-five boys and girls, all having on neat collars tastefully ornamented, and badges of the Band.

The first exercise on the programme, "Greeting," was given promptly at 8 p. m., and followed by twenty-five others, many of thrilling interest. Taken as a whole, the little performers displayed much cultivation and practice in the rendering of their performances.

Following the closing song, "Our Glasses Upside Down," the collection of autographs was taken, and numbered 136, netting the nice sum of $118.

Sunday School Convention.

There will be a Sunday school convention at Santa Monica on Saturday and Sunday next, beginning Saturday evening at 7:45 and closing Sunday evening. Mr. H. C. Sigler, President of the State Sunday School Association, and State Secretary George T. Hanly are the prime movers in the convention and will both be present, together with many other prominent Sunday school workers. Rev. M. M. Bovard, President of the University, will occupy the hour usually devoted to sermons in an interesting and timely discussion of Sunday school questions, and the entire day will be filled with exercises. If the pavilion can be had without disturbance from the gin-sellers and gamblers, the exercises will be held there; otherwise the evening exercises will be held in one of the churches, and those of the day in a grove in the upper portion of town.

The Testimony of the Knights.

Without exception almost every Sir Knight who has passed through Los Angeles, on the way to San Francisco, speaks in the highest terms of this city and its resources. If the great conclave does nothing more than it is already accomplishing for California, it will do a good work. As an advertisement the country could receive no better one. Every Easterner who passes through it cannot but be impressed with its superior advantages over almost any other section in the United States, and consequently must aid emigration by the expression of their praise.

Vineyards on Dry Lands.

The McClure Brothers, who reside about fourteen miles from town in the San Fernando mountains, have a flourishing three-year-old twenty-acre vineyard which has never had a drop of water artificially applied to it, yet the growth of the young vines has been as rapid as on the best irrigated lands, and the crop, when the vines come in full bearing next year, promises to be fully as heavy. The amount of foothill land adapted to grape culture is astonishing, and it will ere long be bound to be the most desirable.

A Pocket Picked.

Mr. C. B. Chamberlin, of San Francisco, while passing from the postoffice to the Cosmopolitan Hotel, yesterday, was robbed of a valuable gold watch and chain. Mr. Chamberlin says that he had the watch in his vest pocket and attached to a fob-chain, and that he remembers of looking at it while standing in the line before the delivery window in the postoffice, and cannot remember of having run against any one on the way, but is certain that the watch is stolen.

Energy Wins.

As an example of what industry may accomplish in this city, the case of a mechanic who came here a little over a year ago is a good example. When he arrived here he had but $20, and the prospect for business looked slim. By good work, advertising and a thorough understanding of his business he has already accumulated a handsome sum of money, and is the owner of a comfortable home which is free from debt.

A DESERT VINEYARD.

Delicious Ripe Grapes from the Whitewater.

San Bernardino Index.]

The Index office was the gratified recipient this morning of several bunches of ripe Mission grapes from O. D. Gass. Mr. Gass brought the grapes in from the Whitewater country, where the Indians have small vineyards, but so few that they never find their way into the markets. These grapes were shown to us to prove what the country there is capable of. A company has been formed, called the Gorgonio Vine Association, which owns 350 acres of land in this vicinity, and within one and a half miles of the railroad. The company consists mostly of Riverside men, but O. D. Gass and Tom Cover are the principals. This whole tract of 350 acres will be planted to the grape. The land was secured in time to plant only a few acres last spring. The land has an abundant supply of irrigating water, with a redwood flume 200 rods long. The water flows from Snow Creek, and will furnish 350 inches during any season of the year. The owners expect to flood the market with grapes from one month to six weeks earlier than they can be ripened in the valleys.

From San Bernardino County.

Correspondence of the TIMES.]

SAN BERNARDINO, July 28, 1883.—Fourteen bars of silver bullion arrived here this morning from the Silver King mine, Calico, by Wells, Fargo & Company's express, on its way to San Francisco. The value of the lot is about $20,000 The bars weigh from 115 to 150 ounces apiece. It is the result of twelve days' work. As it lies in one huge pile in front of the express office, it is the great attraction of the day, and a source of wonder to many eastern visitors here.

The Lugonia Fruit Packing Company are just starting up. They are drying peaches at present at the rate of eighteen tons per day, or about 100 (fifty pounds to the box) boxes per day, and as soon as the grape season comes they are prepared to dry about 44,000 pounds a day by the Alden process, giving employment to hundreds of hands. W. E. Butler is the superintendent of this instution.

The Wheat and Flour Trade.

The flour manufactured out of this year's crop will be unusually good. Messrs. Lankershim and Van Nuys last year turned out two brands of flour, but this year only one, as their steel roller (the only one of the kind in this southern country) grinds twice. This firm have made great improvements in the mill during the past year, and may enlarge it.

Amateur Horse Racing.

Horse racing is too common on San Fernando street, near the new depot. Sunday is the favorite day and the amateur racing associations are generally busy. Bets are as freely made as at the annual races, but the am
